ORDER:

In the G.O. first and second read above, certain instructions were issued to all the Government Departments to place orders for the supply of furniture on the Jail Department sufficiently early at the beginning of each financial year to enable the Jail Department to manufacture furniture and supply the same in time, to the indenting Departments. In the Circular Memo. 3rd read above, instructions were also issued to all Government Departments to obtain the requirements of various articles manufactured in the industrial units of the Central Prisons.

2. In the letter 4th read above , the Director General of Prisons and Correctional Services, Andhra Pradesh, has informed that Manufacture activities have been diversified in many ways in the Prisons and therefore requested the Government to issue fresh orders with a direction to all the Government Departments/Corporations/Public Sector undertakings/ Autonomous bodies/Zilla Parishads, Municipalities etc., to give first priority to the Jail made articles (not only furniture, but other items/articles manufactured by the Prisons Department), while placing orders to purchase such articles.
